

BC Alpine Awards

Nominate an athlete, coach, official or volunteer in your club

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS IS APRIL 11,

*(Alcan NGSL Bursary deadline is January 31)

The BC Alpine Awards Selection Committee will only accept one nomination per gender from each club for each athlete award. It is the responsibility of the club to coordinate and select the athlete from their club to be NOMINATED for each award. AWARD NOMINATIONS WILL ONLY BE ACCEPTED if submitted via the electronic nomination form found on the BC ALPINE WEBSITE.

1. ATHLETE AWARDS

1. Dave Murray Ski Foundation Bursary

Criteria:

Awarded to one individual per division based on:

- Financial need
- Athletic ability / Sportsmanship / Leadership
- Coach's recommendation to BC Alpine
- Priority given to J1/J2 age athletes

Award: $750.

About the Award: Founded in 1987 by friends of Dave Murray after a fundraiser.

Application: Submit via BC Alpine Website (www.bcalpine.com under Communications)

Deadline: April 11

2. Bob Parsons' Memorial Fund Bursary

Criteria:

Awarded to two individuals who illustrate:

- Dedication and leadership to their sport
- Financial need
- Priority is given to J1/J2 athletes

Award: $1,000.00 per athlete.

About the Award: Bob Parsons was the original weasel worker at the Whistler World Cup.

Application: Submit via BC Alpine Website. (www.bcalpine.com under Communications)

Deadline: April 11

3. Ski Canada Magazine Bursary

Criteria:

- Kinder Age K2 athletes only
- Financial need
- Potential to rise to the top of ski racing in Canada

About the Award: The Ski Canada Fund is a pool of funds accumulated through commissions paid on the use of the Bank of Montreal MasterCard. The fund is available for not-for-profit ski organizations and groups across Canada.

Award: $1000 awarded to one athlete OR $500 each for one male and one female athlete

Application: Submit via BC Alpine Website. (www.bcalpine.com under Communications)

Deadline: April 11

4. RTA Nancy Greene Ski League Bursary - *Deadline January 31

Criteria:

- A member of the Alcan NGSL program
- Demonstrates dedication to ski racing
- Financial need

Award: Four $100 bursaries; one for each zone

Application: Submit via BC Alpine Website. (www.bcalpine.com under Communications)

Deadline: January 31

5. Cary Mullen Award

Criteria:

- Athlete displaying the most sportsmanlike conduct

Award: trophy for male and female athletes

Application: Submit via BC Alpine Website. (www.bcalpine.com under Communications)

Selection: BC Alpine Board make selection for this award.

Deadline: April 11

6. Canadian Ski Coaches Bursary Athlete's Fund

Criteria:

- J1: $750.00
- K2: $500

Application: Applications accepted directly through the Canadian Ski Coaches Federation.

Go to www.snowpro.com and browse to RESOURCE CENTER and get the "CSCF Athletes Bursary Program and Application Form" and submit directly through the CSCF.

2. COACHES AWARDS

1. BC "FIS" Coach of the Year

Criteria:

- J1/J2/FIS Club or Zone Coach
- Resident of British Columbia
- Shows respect for officials, opponents & parents
- Espouses a philosophy of fair play
- Demonstrates concern for all-around athlete development
- Presents a positive public image
- Level 3—High Performance—full certification
- Applies relevant training theory and coaching practice
- Proven capacity to improve team and/or athlete performance

Application: Submit via BC Alpine Website. (www.bcalpine.com under Communications)

Deadline: April 11

2. BC "Kinder" Coach of the Year

Criteria:

- K1 or K2 Club Coach
- Resident of British Columbia
- Shows respect for officials, opponents & parents
- Espouses a philosophy of fair play.
- Demonstrates concern for all-around athlete development
- Presents a positive public image
- Level 2—Development Level—Full certification
- Applies relevant training theory and coaching practice
- Proven capacity to improve team and/or athlete performance

Application: Submit via BC Alpine Website. (www.bcalpine.com under Communications)

Deadline: April 11

3. OFFICIALS AWARDS

1. Moira Jaatteenmaki Official's Award

Criteria:

- A continued dedication to the Officials' program and the sport of ski racing by serving as a committed BC Alpine Official over several seasons. Due to this committed effort, this person has enabled ski racing to continue at the highest level in the province of BC and offer the participating athletes the best opportunities for advancement in their pursuit of excellence in ski racing.

Application: Submit nomination letter directly to the Official's Chair, Mark Armour at marmour@shaw.ca

.Deadline: April 11

2. Zone Official's Award

Criteria:

- Dedication and commitment of a BC Alpine Official (Level I, II, III, IV) during the previous race season.

Award: Four (4) awards granted – one for each zone: Coast, Kootenay, North & Okanagan

Application: Submit names and letters of nomination directly to the BC Alpine Official's Chair, Mark Armour at marmour@shaw.ca.

Selection: BC Alpine Official's Committee makes selection for this award.

Deadline: April 11

4. VOLUNTEER AWARDS

BC ALPINE MEMBER AWARDS

Complete Awards Application Form online via the BC Alpine Website. (www.bcalpine.com under Communications)

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS IS APRIL 11

AWARDS:

1. Volunteer of the Year
2. Mountain Resort of the Year
3. Event of the Year
4. Club Development of the Year
5. Long Term President's Award

Criteria: Volunteer, Mountain Resort & Event:

- Dedication above and beyond the normal expectations of a volunteer or club
- A level of commitment that contributes to the improvement of the club's organization
- On and off-hill participation

Criteria: Club Development Award

- Club has illustrated growth and significant improvement or leadership

Criteria: BC Alpine Long Term President's Award

- Long term service to ski racing in British Columbia

